Washington News and Gossip. REIGN OF TERROR IN TENNESSEE

Washington, June 5.—Advices from Tennessee indicate that the State militia are creating terror among the people of Middle Tennessee, by oppression, unwarrantable searches and arrests, and in some instances, murder of citizens. Several cases of murder are named, in one of which a man was dragged from his house and killed, in the most brutal manner, in the presence of his wife. The body was then carried to the woods by the murderers, who sent a message to the family that they could have the hody if they chose to go after it.

Mayor's Proclamation. MAYOR'S OFFICE, DAYTON, O., May 17, 1867

The organized banditti of Tennessee, known as Brownlow's militia, have inaugurated a reign of terror in the unhappy State of Tennessee. No home is sacred from their outrage, and they perpetrate murders of the most wanton character.

Robert Hendershoft, well known as the drummer boy of the Rappahannock, eloped from Poughkeepsie, New York, with a rich merchant's daughter, on Friday last. They were married at Newburgh. The interesting pair are scarce nineteen years old. Colonel Butler was killed by an accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Loudiaville Languster County in the State in the countershood out.
